KIRKWOOD HIGH SCHOOL BURNED.

Theft of Kerosene From a Grocer's Oithouse Leads to Suspicions of Incendiarism.

In Kirkwood High School, which was located at the corner of Clay and Adams avenues, was destroyed by fire at 220 year terday morning. Flames were first seen by Mrs Mary E. Sneed, who lives near, in the lower western hallway of the building. In a remarkably short time the entire structure was burning, and it was us-less to attempt to save the school. The loss, including furniture, is estimated by Loctor John Pitman, chairman of the School Board, in 1972s.

To cover this there is 115,000 insurance.

There were two school buildings on the property upon which the High School stood. One of these was used for the first five grades of the grammar school and the other contained all the scadents of the four-year ligh School course, besides the sixth, seventhal and eighth grades of the grammar school is the grammar school.
